

OFDA DISTRICT MEETINGS

Preparing for Tomorrow's Success, Today — SB 224 & More!

SB 224 Changes and Law Review

A variety of topics and situations to be presented in information style as well as question-and-answer format to cover Ohio laws and rules and SB 224 effective 9.13.22:

- Preneed Cremation
- Right of Disposition
- Reactivation fees
- Indigent disposition
- State fund information
- Ethical actions
- CE compliance

Navigating OFDA's Master Trust

Compliance with new Preneed Law changes is ever important in navigating OFDA's Member Service Program – the OFDA Master Trust. With current market conditions, now is the best time for funeral homes to offer their families a chance to prepare for the future. Also, learn about new opportunities for funeral homes to increase its eCommerce offerings through OFDA's new partnership with eFuneral!

What's in it For Me? OFDA Membership & the Importance of Relationships

OFDA works hard from an advocacy, education and engagement standpoint providing professional development, partnership services, communication and timely information, and legal guidance. OFDA is continually evaluating the current landscape and striving to meet member needs – an updated Strategic Plan was finalized by OFDA Board of Directors in February 2022. OFDA's strong relationship with the Ohio State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors will also be highlighted with guest appearances and introductions from OBEFD.
